

AN ACCOUNT OF THE
NEW FINSBURY DISPENSARY,

In St. John's-Street, Clerkenwell,

FOR ADMINISTERING
ADVICE AND MEDICINES
TO THE POOR,
AT THE DISPENSARY,

OR AT
THEIR OWN HABITATIONS,
WITHIN CERTAIN DISTRICTS.

INSTITUTED SEPTEMBER 20, 1736.

THE
NEW FINSBURY DISPENSARY,
IN
ST. JOHN'S-STREET, CLERKENWELL.

INSTITUTED SEPTEMBER 20, 1786.

THE great and peculiar Advantages resulting from Dispensaries, for administering Relief by Advice and Medicine to the Poor at their own Habitations, as well as at the Dispensaries themselves, are sufficiently obvious, not only from the daily Increase of these Institutions, but more especially from the general Support and universal Approbation bestowed upon them. It may be sufficient, therefore, to say, that such is the Nature and Design of the New Finsbury Dispensary. But as all human Systems and Institutions, when founded upon new Principles, must from their Nature be liable to Imperfections, which Time only can discover, and future Improvements remedy—And as Dispensaries themselves, however laudable their Design, were upon their first Establishment in many respects defective; it necessarily follows, that the latest Institution will in all Probability be the most perfect.

The Promoters, therefore, of this charitable Establishment, may, it is hoped, without Presumption, flatter themselves, that it is founded upon Principles the most liberal, useful, and unexceptionable of any extant; more especially since no Pains have been spared to examine the Rules and Orders by which other similar Institutions are regulated—and every Endeavour hath been used by guarding against those Evils which prevail in some, and adding those Advantages which are found in others, to render the New Finsbury Dispensary as perfect as possible.

The Preservation of Order, Regularity, and Unanimity—the Establishment of Economy in the Management of the Charity—the Prevention of Abuses in the Election of Officers—and in short, the promoting with Efficacy the charitable Purposes of the Institution, have been the great Aim.

It is well known that the Disorders of the Poor frequently arise, not so much from the sudden and violent Attacks of Disease, as from the natural Effects of those Wants incidental to their Situation; and that in some particular Cases, a little nutritious Diet, in order to assist the Operation of Medicine, is found absolutely necessary to the Restoration of Health.—Together, therefore, with medicinal Assistance, the New Finsbury Dispensary administers to the Poor, from Time to Time, at the Discretion of the Physician, that salutary Food, which they cannot procure for themselves, and without which, there can be no Probability of their Recovery.

It is no small Pleasure to observe, that this new Mode of Relief has been in the highest Degree beneficial.—The happy Efficacy of it is proved by living Witnesses who were passed all Power of Medicine, and must have perished without this Indulgence; and the additional Expence attending it has been amply recompensed by the Liberality of some Gentlemen who knew the Facts.

There is no Need of dwelling upon the Excellency of this Institution; it speaks sufficiently for itself; and there can be no Doubt, but that the Public will chearfully and generously contribute to its Prosperity. It is very evident, from the Number and Extent of the Districts included in the Plan, and the Multitude of distressed Poor with which they abound, together with the central Situation of the New Dispensary, that no Place can be more suitable to such an Establishment.

Clerkenwell,
April, 1792.

P A T I E N T S.

No Persons are deemed Objects of this Charity but such as are really necessitous.

The Dispensary is open for the Admission of Patients, every Day (Sundays excepted) from Nine in the Morning till Five in the Afternoon.

All Patients, from whatsoever Place they may come, if properly recommended, are prescribed for,

for, and furnished with Medicines, provided they attend at the proper Hours ; but no Patients can be visited at their own Habitations, unless they reside within the Limits of the Dispensary.

The proper Hours for Patients to come for Advice, are from Ten o'Clock till Eleven every Day (Sundays excepted.)

Patients requiring only a Repetition of the Medicines, must apply for them, at the Dispensary, between the Hours of One and Three in the Afternoon.

If any Patient neglects to attend the Physician or Surgeon, at the Dispensary, for six Days successively, such Patient shall be discharged.

Such Patients (living within the District) as are unable personally to attend, must send their Letters of Recommendation by some fit Person to the Dispensary, who will be furnished with proper Medicines, and the Physician and Surgeon will attend them at their Places of Abode when necessary.

The Patients must furnish themselves with Phials and other Things necessary to contain their Medicines ; they are to behave themselves decently and soberly, and to conform strictly to such Rules as are given them, or be immediately dismissed.

The Patients, when cured, are to deliver their Letters of Recommendation at the Dispensary, and receive a Letter of Thanks, which they are to present to the Governor who recommended them ; and if any Patients neglect so to do, they shall not be admitted to any future Benefit from this Charity.

In order to assist the Operation of Medicine in particular urgent Cases, the Physician shall have the Liberty to prescribe occasionally certain nutritious Diet, such as Salop, Sago, Tapioca, Treacle, or coarse Sugar, to be sent from the Dispensary from Time to Time, in the Quantities ordered. This will be confined, however, to such Cases as are known not only to require such Regimen, but in which it clearly appears that the Object is necessitous, and destitute of Friends—Opportunities of making a proper Application of this Indulgence, will more especially occur in some of those Instances where Patients are visited by the Physician, who will then more readily ascertain the fit Objects of so salutary a Regulation.

The District within which Patients must reside, in order to be visited at their own Habitations, consists of the following Parishes and Places: The Parishes of St. James and St. John, Clerkenwell; St. Sepulchre Without; St. Luke; the Liberty of Glasshouse-Yard; Islington; the Liberty of Saffron-Hill, Hatton-Garden, and Ely-Rents; the Parishes of St. Andrew, Holborn, and St. George the Martyr; the Liberty of the Rolls; the Precinct of Black Friars; the Ward of Farringdon Within, and the Ward of Farringdon Without.

P H Y S I C I A N.

The Physician is to attend at the Dispensary at Ten o'Clock every Day (Sundays excepted) to give Advice to such Out-Patients as come properly recommended, and afterwards to visit the Home Patients at the Places of their Abode, as the Case may require.

If the Physician, from Indisposition, or from any other Cause, be incapable of attending, he must provide some other Physician to attend in his Room; of which he must always give Notice to the Apothecary, who must inform the President, a Vice-President, or the Treasurer thereof, so that they or either of them may approve of the Person so appointed, or nominate another to officiate as his Substitute till the next Monthly Committee.

S U R G E O N.

The Surgeon is to attend at the Dispensary every Day from Ten o'Clock till Half past Eleven (Sundays excepted) for the Purpose of examining and relieving Out-Patients, and afterwards to visit the Home-Patients at their own Habitations.

The same Regulations are to be observed in Case of the Indisposition or Absence of the Surgeon, as are before-mentioned with respect to the Physician.
